Every creditor who does not prove his claim is not entitled to share in any distribution. Claims not completed correctly in every respect will be returned.

In completing the attached form, your attention is directed to the marginal notes on the form and to the following requirements:

Proof of Claim:

- 1. The form must be completed by an individual and not by a corporation. If you are acting for a corporation or other person, you must state the capacity in which you are acting, such as, "Credit Manager", "Treasurer", "Authorized Agent", etc.
- 2. The person signing the form must have knowledge of the circumstances connected with the claim.
- 3. The debtor's name and date of the bankruptcy must be filled in and a Statement of Account containing details of the claim must be attached and marked "A". The date at which claims are to be calculated and the correct name of the debtor may be found on the Notice sent to the creditor.
- 4. The nature of the claim must be indicated by ticking the type of claim which applies, e.g.-

Ticking A indicates the claim is unsecured and Ticking A(i) indicates that the creditor is not claiming any priority or Ticking A(ii) indicates the creditor is claiming preferred status under section 136 of the Act. Details to support the priority claim must be set out on an attached schedule.

Ticking B indicates a claim of landlord for disclaimer of a lease under subsection 65.2(4) of the Act. Details to support this claim must be set out on an attached schedule.

Ticking C indicates the claim is secured and the value at which the creditor assesses the security must be inserted. Details of each item of security held should be attached as a separate schedule and submitted with a copy of the chattel mortgage, conditional sales contract, security agreement, etc.

Ticking D indicates that the creditor is a farmer, fisherman or aquaculturist who supplied goods within 15 days prior to the date of receivership or bankruptcy and has not yet been paid for those goods.

 $\label{eq:continuous} \mbox{Ticking E} \qquad \mbox{indicating that the creditor is a former employee of the debtor.}$

Ticking E(i) The claim of a clerk, servant, travelling salesperson, labourer or worker who is owed wages, salaries, commissions or compensation by a bankrupt for services rendered during the period beginning on the day that is six months before the date of the initial bankruptcy event and ending on the date of the bankruptcy is secured, as of the date of the bankruptcy, to the extent of $2,000 — less any amount paid for those services by the trustee or by a receiver — by security on the bankrupt's current assets on the date of the bankruptcy.

Ticking E(ii) The claim of a clerk, servant, travelling salesperson, labourer or worker who is owed wages, salaries, commissions or compensation by a person who is subject to a receivership for services rendered during the six months before the first day on which there was a receiver in relation to the person is secured, as of that day, to the extent of $2,000 — less any amount paid for those services by a receiver or trustee — by security on the person's current assets that are in the possession or under the control of the receiver.

Ticking F indicates the claim is against a director under subsection 50(13) of the Act. It is applicable only in the case of a proposal which provides for the compromise of claims against directors. Details to support this claim must be set out on an attached schedule.

Ticking G (applies only to bankruptcies of security firms) indicating that the creditor is a customer of the bankrupt securities firm.

- 5. The person signing the form must indicate (by striking out "is" or "is not") whether the creditor and the debtor are related. Section 4 of the Act defines persons related to a debtor. If the creditor is related by blood or marriage to the debtor, the creditor should consider itself to be a related person. If the debtor is a corporation, a creditor would be related if it was a shareholder or if the creditor was controlled by the same shareholders as the debtor.
- 6. The person signing the form must provide full details of all payments and credits received from or allowed to the debtor during the period indicated. Leaving a blank will indicate that there were no such payments and credits.
- 7. In the case of the bankruptcy of an individual, tick one or more of the three boxes in No. 7 as appropriate.
- 8. The person signing the form must insert the place and date and the signature must be witnessed.

General Proxy:

If it is desired to appoint a proxy, the proxy form must be completed and signed by the creditor; if the creditor is a corporation, the proxy form must be signed in the corporate name (not necessarily by the individual signing the proof of claim form) and the proxy must be witnessed.
