

Elias Sifuentes, Restaurateur
OCR 4th grade Unit 2 Lesson 2
Readers Theatre

Julia: Welcome to my restaurant. Would you like to see a menu?

Child: Yes, please. Are you the restaurateur or an employee?

Julia: I own this establishment. How may I help you?

Child: I've heard many wonderful things about the food I just had to come!

Julia: I am sure that you will not be disappointed.

Child: Everything on the menu looks delicious. I can't decide.

Julia: Don't be frustrated. Why don't you have the tasting menu?

Child: Wonderful idea. Do you get much traffic?

Julia: Yes, we have customers coming in non-stop!

Child: You have a large staff. Is it difficult to supervise everyone?

Julia: No, not really. We work together like a well-oiled machine.

Child: I'm starved! Is my food almost here?

Julia: Here's your soup. It's a potato leek soup.

Child: Looks great. But there's a problem.

Julia: Is it too hot? Or is it too cold?

Child: No, that's not it.

Julia: Is it not seasoned properly?

Child: No. The problem is that I don't have a spoon.

Julia: Oops! Here you go.

Child: Marvelous! This is the best soup ever!
