This SOW shall be effective as of January 27, 2014.

Except as otherwise set forth in this SOW, this SOW incorporates by reference, and is deemed to be a part of, the Agreement. The additional terms and conditions of this SOW shall apply only to the tax compliance Services covered by this SOW and not to Services covered by any other Statement of Work pursuant to the Agreement. At the request of Client, upon execution of a letter substantially in the form of Attachment 1 attached hereto in respect of each tax year for which access to such workpapers is sought, EY will provide Client with copies of EY's final workpapers, in a format regularly maintained by EY, produced by EY for purposes of preparing computations in connection with the following services under this letter:

- Originally filed returns listed above

All Client copies of the tax returns and Schedules K-1 will be presented to Client in an electronic format.

Client may be required to file Schedule UTP ("Uncertain Tax Position Statement") with its federal tax returns beginning with the 2010 tax year. Among other services, EY can assist Client with a review of Client's financial statement reserve schedules to identify positions that might be subject to disclosure on Schedule UTP, discuss opportunities for remediating such positions, and provide assistance regarding implementation of Schedule UTP processes for current and future years. We will be happy to discuss and provide fee estimates for these services, which would be covered under a separate SOW.

The Services may be modified from time to time by our mutual written agreement and approval of the Bankruptcy Court, if required.

Client acknowledges and agrees that, whether or not this SOW has been approved by the Bankruptcy Court at the time any Report is rendered, any such Report rendered by EY prior to the delivery of its final Report is preliminary in nature and cannot be relied upon for any purpose, including penalty protection.

Out-of-Scope Services

This engagement does not include (1) an analysis of any shift in ownership of Client stock, (2) the preparation of statements required by Internal Revenue Code §§382 and 383, or (3) a determination of whether such code sections limit the amount of taxable income or tax that can be offset by net operating loss carryforwards, certain recognized built-in losses, certain excess credits, or net capital loss carryovers. The limitations under these provisions may have a material adverse impact on Client's tax liability. We will not prepare a return on which taxable income (or tax) is offset by such attributes unless an analysis is performed. If you would like EY to perform such an analysis, those services would be covered under a separate engagement letter. Please contact Mike Warsaw if you would like to discuss additional services and fees associated with the analysis and reporting requirements under these rules.

This engagement does not include any advice or determinations regarding what expenses may be qualified research expenses under Internal Revenue Code §41 or comparable state statutes.

Client may be required to file one or more Forms 3115 ("Application for Change in Accounting Method") with its federal tax return beginning with the 2014 tax year (or 2013, or 2012 tax year if adopted early) in order to implement the accounting method changes required by the final set of regulations commonly referred to as the "tangible property regulations." If one or more Forms 3115 are to be filed with Client's 2013 tax return, EY will prepare the Form(s) 3115 based on your instructions and guidance and will file the duplicate form(s) with the IRS according to the instructions provided in the relevant revenue procedure. Any preparation and processing of these forms are in addition to our Services in connection with the preparation of the tax returns for the tax year ended 12/31/2013. Among other services, EY can assist you with evaluating the impact the regulations have on your current tax accounting including identifying what accounting methods can or must be changed, advising you on the various methods that may be available for remediating your current tax methods if necessary, and providing assistance regarding implementation of the regulations for current and future years.

Upon written request and pre-approval and further Bankruptcy Court approval, EY will assist Client with other tax compliance services, including preparation of additional returns for the current tax year, and extension requests and computation of estimated tax payments for subsequent tax years. However, these services are not covered under the Scope of Services. We will be happy to discuss and provide fee estimates for such additional services, which would be invoiced separately and subject to all other terms and conditions of this SOW and the above-referenced Agreement.

Any activities not described as Services, as indicated above under Scope of Services, in addition to those described in the preceding five paragraphs are not covered by the fees stated herein. These services will be considered outside the scope of this SOW and are the responsibility of Client to perform on a timely basis unless otherwise agreed by the parties in writing (in a separate SOW or an amendment to this SOW) and approved by the Bankruptcy Court.

Your obligations

We draw your attention to the reservations set out in paragraph 5 of the General Terms and Conditions of the Agreement, as well as your management responsibilities under paragraph 6, and your representation, as of the date hereof, under paragraph 26 thereof. You have obtained the prior approval of your Audit Committee for these Services, as applicable.

Additional terms and conditions

Client authorizes EY, its affiliates, and other members of the global Ernst & Young network, including those located outside the United States, to disclose Client's tax return information received or generated in connection with the Services described in this SOW, including prior year tax return information, to and among each other for the purpose of rendering the Services and to discuss and provide related services to you, including, for example, bringing to your attention planning opportunities that we may identify based upon the preparation and/or review of your tax returns. You have the ability to request a more limited disclosure of tax return information than that described above. If, at any time, you would like us to narrow the scope of the information to be disclosed, please contact us in writing and we will limit any disclosures that have not yet occurred. You acknowledge that this consent will be valid for three years from the date this SOW is signed by you below.

Disclosure of reportable transactions

Treasury regulations require taxpayers to file disclosure statements relating to certain tax strategies/transactions that the Internal Revenue Service ("IRS") has identified as Listed Transactions or Transactions of Interest, any transaction that is substantially similar to a Listed Transaction or Transaction of Interest, and Other Reportable Transactions. The disclosure statements must be filed with the proper tax returns and also sent separately to the IRS. In addition, some states have enacted tax shelter legislation requiring taxpayers to file reportable transaction disclosure statements with the appropriate state income and franchise tax returns. Failure to disclose properly any of these transactions/strategies in which Client directly or indirectly participated may result in the imposition of penalties.

During the process of gathering data to prepare Client's tax returns, EY requires Client to complete a questionnaire about Listed Transactions, Transactions of Interest, and Other Reportable Transactions, which is attached to this SOW. If there is a particular person other than you who should respond to such questionnaire on behalf of Client, please immediately provide to EY that person's name, position, and telephone number. EY shall not be liable for any penalties resulting from Client's failure to accurately and timely respond to the questionnaire or to file timely the required disclosure statement.

Contacts

You have identified Stuart Statland as your contact with whom we should communicate about these Services. Your contact at EY for these Services will be Mike Warsaw and Val Franks.

Engagement Team

If either of these individuals ceases to provide tax services to Client pursuant to the Agreement, EY will so advise Client and, if that person is replaced, provide Client with the name of the professional's replacement.
