Sync.next Flow & Wireframes - Targeting Firefox 36, February 17th, 2015

Sync Migration (Desktop & Android)

User flow diagram with links to higher-fidelity artifacts that illustrate the migration plan for legacy sync devices and constellations. Treat this as the visual equivalent of a wiki, and if you drop in a postit comment, please leave your name. Ryan Feeley, rfeeley@mozilla.com

Sync Migration Onboarding
Browser Chrome

START
Launch Firefox

running legacy sync

if

31

if

first launch only

everyone

if

fxa verification pending

no fxa verification pending

pre-31 running old sync

Update Firefox to sync state
Browser Chrome

Waiting until server welcomes upgrades sync successfully upgraded elsewhere

server welcoming upgrades

if

sync not upgraded elsewhere

before server killed

if

after server killed

Add unlink button in preferences

Optionally show these deadlines

Urgent upgrade state
Browser Chrome

Sync broken state
Browser Chrome

Add unlink button in preferences

Join the party state
Browser Chrome

Sign in to user@domain.com to complete your Sync upgrade

choose

upgrade

dismiss

many

new tab

choose

sign in

dismiss

many

new tab

dismissed over X ×

dismissed up to X ×

if

X bug required

Schedule Reminder Recurrence
Daily?

Delete Old Sync Dialog
Browser Chrome

Add unlink button in preferences

Import legacy sync settings
Email, choose what to sync state & selections

Autofill FxA email address in to login form

FxA Auth Flow
Web Hosted
(accounts.firefox.com)
Full flow illustrated here

Registration Form
Web Hosted

Login Form
Web Hosted

if

successful

many

abandon

new tab

Email Sent Web Hosted

resend

Pre-verified state
Browser Chrome

if

successful

many

Please verify notification removed Desktop only

Successful Upgrade Doorhanger in originating client

Old sync unlinked
No confirmation required